INDICTMENT

COUNT ONE

The Grand Jury for the District of Maryland charges that:

Between in or about December 2006 through in or about November 2011, in the District of Maryland, the District of Arizona and elsewhere, the defendant,

DAVID CHARLES RICHARDS,

with the intent to place a person in another State in reasonable fear of the death of, and serious bodily injury to that person, used the mail, an interactive computer service and a facility of interstate and foreign commerce, to engage in a course of conduct that placed that person in reasonable fear of death and serious bodily injury to that person, to wit: the defendant, while residing in Arizona, repeatedly threatened harm to a female person living in Maryland through emails, packages sent in the U.S. mail, and the posting of messages and recordings on websites created in the female person's name.
